BUILDING MATERIALS.

It is usual at this season of the year to find considerable activity in all the leading styles of building materials, and a firm tone if not an advancing tendency to prices, but beyond a few spasmodic spurts business has had a slow dragging appearance throughout the fall, and values generally have ruled low. Manufactured goods to a certain extent may be cited as an exception, owing to an outlet afforded by country and coastwise orders, but articles havng no important market beyond the wants of city consumers, such as brick, lath, lime, lumber, &c., have been met with much indifference by buyers, at times almost entirely neglected, and very slight accumulations of supplies have given receivers great trouble. Cement has remained pretty steady until within a week or two, when even this article, which manufacturers have been talking up all summer, began to show signs of weakness. It should not be inferred, however, that the dull condition of the market shows any neglect on the part of city dealers in securing winter supplies, as some are already filled up and the balance have every prospect of receiving their complement before navigation closes. These stocks, owing to the reduced consumptive demand, have to a greater or less extent been slowly accumulating since midsummer, and not only jobbers, but a great many of the large builders who contemplate working during the next three or four months have for some time been in possession of an assortment equal to all probable wants until spring. This course was partly the result of experience, and, by doing away with the necessity for a general scramble to obtain supplies as winter approached, has completely forestalled the usual "corners" to advance values. Indeed, so far the attempts to obtain higher rates have in most cases resulted in signal failures, or at the best, met with only temporary success, while in a few instances the reaction has carried figures back to and below the original starting-point. As compared with the demand, the production of many articles has been simply immense. and is to be attributed to the high prices of the two or three preceding years, which not only induced old houses to increase their working facilities, but brought into existence a great many new manufacturers, and now, with all competing to secure the greatly reduced number of buyers, depressed and irregular prices are the consequence. When navigation closes, and business becomes confined to jobbers' hands, we may look for a little more strength and uniformity, but scarcely any decided advance until well on towards spring at least, owing to the large and well-assorted stocks now here.

MR. STUYVESANT'S experiment—if such it can be called-is well worthy the attention of those of our capitalists who engage in building for the more refined classes of our people. How far his scheme surpasses that of tothers, in meeting a pressing demand, may be gleaned from comparing the eagerness with which his houses are engaged before completion with the difficulty others find in obtaining immediate tenants. Mr. J. J. Astor, for instance, has nearly completed two whole blocks of very pretty four-story dwelling houses on 7th av., from 43d to 44th and from 44th to 45th streets. Everything is in their favor except the ominous placard on their fronts: "To be let to one family only," and the price of rental, which, we were informed, is $3,500 per annum, without the store underneath. While Mr. Stuyvesant has had to disappoint 200 applicants, but only one, we believe, of Mr. Astor's houses has yet been taken. Perhaps such houses are wanted in New York, but they do not begin to meet the requirements of those hundreds of families in this city who, although utterly unable to pay any such rental, are in every respect as safe payers, as respectable and refined, as any that will occupy these $3,500 houses. Had such buildings as Mr. Stuyvesant's been erected on this spot -which is infinitely superior for such a purposewe venture to say that every room in both blocks would have been bespoken before this, and by tenants quite as reliable as any that Mr. Astor can obtain at his higher price.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

REAL ESTATE in Mew York city is not active, but prices continue firm, or we may say fixed, and for that reason a very small quantity is changing hands. Brooklyn property is by no means dull and is visibly appreciating in price. Building also is very active for this season of the year, and some of the outer wards are filling up very fast. In one ward alone, the Twenty-first, we find that 'there are now in course of erection buildings to the value of over one million of dollars. These buildings are mostly of a class calculated to accommodate people of moderate means, and range in price from three to twelve thousand dollars each; the style of house that is most in demand being those that can be sold at from seven to ten thousand dollars. There is no actual necessity at present for any more buildings of a more expensive class, and builders wiil do well to make a note of that fact. We regard uninproved property in any of the growing wards (where railroad facilities are good and handy) as a good purchase at the present rate of prices.

The following contracts were awarded in Brooklyn this week: Grading and paving Bushwick av. from its northerly terminus to Myrtle av., with Belgian pavement, at $15.43 per running foot.

Grading and paving Walcott st., from Richard to Dwight sts., with coble stones, at 75 cents per running

The second report of the Committee on Grading, &c., recommends the grading and paving of Albany av., from Herkimer to Wyckoff sts.

MARKET REVIEW.

BRICKS.—Of North River hard brick the supply continues to exceed the demand, and the market still has a slow dragging appearance, with a noticeable weakness on prices. We cannot as yet quote any general or positive decline, but outside figures are now seldom insisted upon, and it is hinted that on many lots during the past few days concessions have been quietly granted, for the purpose of securing desirable customers. The attempt, therefore, to "corner" the market has for the time being falled, and as we write, the advantage lays almost entirely in favor of the buying interest, with no apparent prospect of a reaction while the river remains open, qualtest those dealers who have not as yet secured all the stock they desire should happen to rush into the market together and give manufacturers the opportunity to dictate higher terms. We do not imagine, however, that any very heavy amounts of stock will again be called for this year, from the very fact that there is no use for it present or prospective, most of the leading dealers and builders, as we have before noted, having already received or contracted for such supplies as they will use between now and spring, and the inquiry now daily falls off, while the arrivals, if anything, increase. The production of course is now at an end, but there is an immense accumulation at the yards, and as much of this as the market will bear is being sent forward. The "upriver" manufacturers, we understand, have nearly all become pretty free shippers, while those whose yards are situated in Haverstraw Bay are less inclined to hold back their, goods, and send out cargoes whenever they can be pretty well assured that sales will not be very long delayed. The quality runs good from all points. We quote a little nominally at about $1.500 $8 per M for inferior and common grades; $8.250 $8.50 for good to prime do: $8.750 to force, with occasionally something very fine 25 or 50c, per M higher, though $9 may be considered a pretty rull price for cargoes. New Jersey hards remain at about CEMENT.—The market for Rosendale continues in the same unsettled condition noted during the past two or three weeks, and the actual value at wholesale is to a certain extent nominal. The quoted rate is still $2 per bbl delivered here, but some of the favorite manufacturing companies having enough orders on hand to keep them busy to the close of the season, refuse to deliver any stock below $2.25, and it is said have obtained the latter figure from buyers who have a particular preference in favor of their brands. On the other hand, good stock is selling daily at $2, and poorer grades at something lower, with quite regular deliveries, now that the facilities for transportation are again about all restored. The current demand is very fair, embracing coastwise orders, some call from certain points in the interior, and of late, increasing somewhat on city account, mainly for supplies, though there is still considerable going into consumption. Our city dealers now begin to show a more general desire to lay in their winter stocks, but are very deliberate in their CEMENT.-The market for Rosendale continues in the movements, and it is not likely any unusual rush for goods will occur until the river commences to freeze.

will occur until the river commences to freeze.

FOREIGN WOODS.—Through necessity there has been a fair number of buyers in the market during the past week picking up small parcels, but the demand is not a large one in the aggregate, and the position far from encouraging. Holders, to be sure, remain quite firm, as a rule, and the stocks are light, with some tendency to decrease, but the movement is very slow as compared with previous seasons, and it is impossible to dispute the growing feeling of depression. Dealers in this city and at the other points of distribution near-by have in nearly all cases a good and well assorted accumulation on hand, and to which they claim it is unnecessary to make additions, while the consumptive demand continues as light as at present, and European shippers are ruled out entirely (except on peremptory orders) by the high cost of freight and the apparent weakness in gold. Rumors prevail that large amounts of stock are en route, and this also adds to the feeling of prostration. We note exports of $42 logs cedar, valued at $1,250, to Liverpool. Receipts of 206 logs cedar from Surinam, and 802 per rosewood from Bahia.

from Surinam, and 802 pcs rosewood from Bahia.

GLASS.—Contrary to expectation, or to report at least, the supply has been more liberal of foreign window glass, and the demand at the same time falling off, the market shows less general strength, though without any positive decline. The buyers now operating appear to be mostly small country dealers, with an occasional order from the late free operators to finish out assortments of sizes previously overlooked. At the recent auction sale of French window, about one-half of an offering of 12,000 boxes was disposed of at prices comparing favorably with those current at private sale. Holders are not foreing their stocks, but appear willing to meet all calls. We quote at 55@60 per cent. off list on French, and 40@50 per cent. off on English. The latest imports were 23,810 pckgs glass, valued at $33,029, and 98 plates, valued at $11,461. American window glass is in fair average demand, though less active than last week, and the stock again begins to accumulate somewhat. Prices remain as before, viz., 50@60 per cent. discount from domestic list.

LATH.—With comparative small supplies there has been nothing to materially affect this market pro or condup to the present writing the price has remained quite uniform at $2.75, receivers managing to find customers at this figure for such lots as they had to offer. It is generally conceded, however, that there is no animation to the demand, and that to sell any considerable quantity of lath just now would require a further concession. This position may, to be sure, be alterated somewhat as the season draws to a close, but it is rather doubtful, as many of our jobbers are already in possession of nearly enough stock to carry them through the winter; others have bought eargoes to arrive, which will materially increase their accumulation, and all are confident in their ability to resist suny attempt to force them into paying higher figures. The amount now being distributed for consumption is small, and nearly if not quite balanced by current arrivals. There is said to be only a few cargoes due immediately, but there is no doubt that the mills generally are busily engaged in sawing, and manufacturers will endeavor to find a market for their production so long as they are not compelled to realize at an actual loss. The sales reported for the week are 1,575,000, at $2.75 per M.

LIME.—No change of importance has taken place in the market for Eastern stock since our last, and the general position still appears quite as unsatisfactory to the selling interest as before. Buyers of all classes are decidedly few and far between, and when found require so much solicitation and so many favors that it is quite a difficult matter to prevent a further failing off in values, even with the comparatively small amounts of stock coming to hand from day to day. We quote at $1.50 per bbl for common; and $1.75 do for lump, and if there is any difference in the demand it is in favor of the latter. We learn of nothing definite from the points of production, though rumor says that most of the kilns are again burning, and manufacturers are prepared to meet any wants that seem likely to arise. The Northern linnes are now arriving with regularity, and though a number of contractors have still considerable amounts due, fresh orders are accepted and more are vidently desired. A few lots have been taken for shipment, but the demand is mainly from city and near-by dealers for stock. Prices are quoted as above, but buyers desiring any large quantity will find it to their advantage to make rather lower bids and stick to them. There has been seven cargoes reported coastwise for the week.

LUMBER.—Business at the yards appears in much the make rather lower bids and stick to them. There has been seven cargoes reported coastwise for the week.

LUMBER.—Business at the yards appears in much the same general position last noted, a few dealers only reporting a fair amount of stock selling, and the majority complaining that customers are few and far between. A great many, however, are quite busy receiving and stowing winter supplies, large quantities of which have of late arrived from behind the recent breaks on the canals, and this for the time being imparts a little life to the market, though not exactly the kind of activity desired. When everything now here or about due is landed and piled, the yards will be about fall, and from all accounts the accumulation very fairly assorted, though without an abundance of the most desirable grades. On prices no change has taken place worthy of note, and we find a pretty steady feeling current in view of the fact that no more stock is likely to be forced on the market this year, and that all sales making from this time forward will amount to just so much reduction of supplies. The Albany market is receiving larger quantities of stock, but there appears from all accounts to be a corresponding increase of the demand, and coarse lumber is again scarce, with the assortment of many other grades considerably broken. Prices unchanged and firm in view of the probable falling off in the receipts, though in some quarters it is thought that the immense accumulation of lumber at Oswego may tempt the boatmen to try one more trip at least before they lay up for the season. On the Champlain Canal there is not much lumber moving forward, owing to a scarcity of boats. The following decision will interest lumber dealers generally: lumber dealers generally:

"Treasury Department,
"Office of Internal Revenue
"Washington, Oct. 19, 1869.

"Sin:—You state in your letter of the 14th inst., that there are several lumber dealers in your district who hire lumber planed and made into flooring, etc., and sell the same, and heretofore have pald a tax on such as dealers. You inquire whether they should be required to pay on such sales as manufacturers. I reply that, where a lumber dealer has a planing mill, and dresses and sells lumber, he is held for a tax on such sales under section 4 of the act of March 31, 1868, and the dealer who hires lumber planed and sells the same is equally liable to the same tax.

planed and sells the same is equally active to a planing mill to have it planed, tongued, grooved, sided, or otherwise dressed or prepared, and sells the same when dressed, and who also sells undressed lumber, should be required to make quarterly returns of his sales of dressed lumber, and pay thereon the tax imposed by the section above referred to, and should also be held liable for special tax as dealer, wholesale or retail, as the case may be, for his sales of undressed lumber. Very respectfully, "C. Delano, Commissioner."

The wholesale market has continued rather dull during the week under review, and we hear of very few important sales. Prices show no decided or oven quotable variation, but in some cases are a little weak, and quick buyers are allowed comparatively liberal term as an inducement to operate. The supplies offering have been fair, and were mostly sought after by regular dealers, who have not, however, displayed any undue anxiety to purchase. Exporters, as a rule, are still remaining quiet, though occasionally securing desirable parcels, and holders of goods adapted to their wants seem a trifle more confident, particularly as it is generally understood that the amounts now going on board in the St. Lawrence river will complete the shipments for the season. Eastern Spruce for the whole week, has been in liberal supply, but it has come forward in such an easy and regular manner as to prevent a large accumulation at any one time, and receivers manage to find an outlet for all without submitting to positive decline, though the terms allowed, and various come forward in such an easy and regular manner as to prevent a large accumulation at any one time, and receivers manage to find an outlet for all without submitting to positive decline, though the terms allowed, and various favors shown, gave buyers considerable advantage. Indeed, the market appears to just about hold its own, and that is all, and a very slight pressure to realize would immediately reduce values. Under the circumstances, we quote somewhat nominally at about $18 per M for the worst; $19,600 for fair to good, and $20,500,$21,50. for prime. White pine has continued moderately active and steady, but the call is too light at present to greatly encourage dealers. Buyers do not particularly object to the current prices, but complain of the uncertain resale of goods when they take them, and few can be induced to operate beyond immediate necessities. The receipts have again been large, but the stock due is now said to have about all reached tide water, and no more will be forwarded, owing to the "advanced cost of freight room on the cauals. A few lots have been purchased by exporters to complete vessels cargoes. We quote at $200,$25 per M for inferior to fair box and shipping boards; and $200,$30 for good to fchoice do. Pilling has been moderately active, mostly from the accumulated stock; and as the arrivals are very little in excess of the sales, dealers remain firm at full former figures. We quote at 0c.88c. per foot, the latter figure only obtained on choice sticks. Yellow pine has been rather quiet, as quite a number of former purchases have come to hand of late, and dealers prefer getting these assorted and out of the way before entering into any further contracts. Sellers complain to some extent about the same time accept former rates when offered, and we still quote at about $300,$38 per M for common to good; and $40,$35 do for extra to choice. Shingles without change to altisough $21.50 per M; 125,000 feet pellow pine, at $330,$3.50; and 200 feet piling at 6c.8c. per foot.

From Chicago we have the following of recent date:

The market during the week under review has remained dull and depressed in the absence of any speculative or fair consumptive demand, and prices have ruled extremely low. The severe weather for the past few days, together with a close working money market, have held interior as well as local buyers from purchasing only as necessity demanded. Generally speaking, the yards are well stocked and with their present light trade it requires but a limited supply to keep their stocks complete. Where the demand for money has not compelled the shipper to dispose of his cargo upon arrival, at the mere nominal prices offered by the buyer, vessels have gone direct to the yards and unloaded, preferring to take the chances of a higher or lower market the next season, or even to retail out their shipments, than submit to a slaughter of values at the wholesale docks. Common lumber boards and strips have sold at a range of $90,811, and many cargoes of good Muskegon lumber have been disposed of at $10. Good mill run is quotable at $140,815, but the most of this quality has sold below the inside price. An occasional cargo of strictly choice mill run has found a purchaser

The Milwaukee market is reported as follows:

The market has ruled dull from day to day since our last report. Trade from city yards during the month has been fur below expectations, in consequence of which dealers have on hand a large proportion of their summer purchases, and have been unwilling to buy to any great extent, except to supply some break in assortment. The supply of common and inferior cargoes has been more than the demand required, and prices have been frequently shaded in order to effect sales. Lath is steady, with a fair demand, at $1.87½@$2.00 per M pcs. Shingles are dull at $3.00@$3.25.

The following cargo sales are about the market range of prices:

The following cargo sales are about the market range of prices:
From Oconto, 137m, deck load scantling and joist, at $9.50; hold full mill run, 1½ and 1½ inch, at $30.00 for 1st, 2d, and 3d clear. From Whitehall, 65m mill run, at $6.00 for culls, $11.00 for common, and $28.00 for 1st, 2d, and clear; 270 m "A" shingles at $8.12½. From Whitehall, 70m strips and boards, at $12.00. From Manistee, 70m dock load bill lumber, at $40; hold full scantling and joist at $10.00. From Manistee, 90m scantling and joist, at $11.00; cut to order. From Kewaunce, 227,580 feet mill run, at $12.50; 96m lath at $2.00. From Manistee, 100m strips and boards at $11.00. From Manistee, 65m scantling and joist, at $9.50.

NAILS.—The market is without change of importance.

ling and joist, at $9,50.

NAILS.—The market is without change of importance, prices remaining about as before, and sellers meeting the demand with all the stock required. The call from exporters is confined mainly to positive orders, and the buyers from the interior appear to have about completed their invoices. The general feeling throughout the market is steady. We quote cut at 4%@4%c. Clinch remain dull and nominally steady, at 6½.@6%c. Other styles are selling at 38@40c. for copper; 27c. for yellow metal; and 15c. for zinc. The exports for the week are: 375 packages, yalued at $3,614.

PAINTS AND OUS.—The more than a selling at 30.00 and 150.

related at $3,614.

PAINTS AND OILS.—The market has again relapsed into a comparatively dull condition, and the sales from day to day are extremely small. Near-by country dealers and local jobbers are the principal buyers, though a few orders on West India account have recently been filled. The supply continues ample, with an increasing tendency. American white lead is working downward in price, but other styles are without quotable alteration. The demand from consumers is falling off. Linseed oil continues to meet with a very limited demand, and prices are gradually receding, under the combined influence of the dullness, and a quiet though pretty strong pressure to realize from great many holders, who find it necessary to get rid of some of their surplus stock. The outlet is mainly of a local character. We quote nominally at 93@94c., in casks, and 95@96c. in bbls. The exports for the week are 234 packages, paint, valued at $3,220; and 300 bbls oxide zinc, valued at $3,435.

PLASTER PARIS.—Lump continues to come forward zinc, valued at $3,435.

PLASTER PARIS.—Lump continues to come forward with freedom on all contracts, and our manufacturers find their accumulations daily increasing, as the contracting demand for the manufactured article is not equal to the arrivals. Thus far this year there has been reported at this port 44,000 tons, and at the present rate of supply the aggregate will exceed 60,000 tons by January 1st. Prices are nominally steady, and we continue to quote at about $3.25@$4 per ton for blue, and $4.25@$4.75 do for white. Fresh orders are not plenty, but we understand a few have been received from "out-of-town." Receipts of lump for the week, 1,255 tons. Calcined still appears to be in a very unsettled condition, and a positive quotation is simply an impossibility. The regular brands are named pretty well up, say about $2.40 per bb in a wholesale way, but from this manufacturers are constantly obliged to deviate as a matter of self protection from other producers who offer their goods at low enough figures to attract the moderate amount of floating trade, both local and out-of-town. Sales, therefore, even of A1 goods are regulated by the circumstances of the hour, and range within $2.15@$2.40 per bbl, and of common countrystock parcels have changed hands at still lower figures.

PITCH.—The market is certainly no better than last week, and cannot be called in particularly worse condition, though trade is very light and sellers quite anxious to find customers. The supplies on hand are pretty large, and rather more Southern stock has recently come forward. Prices are nominally as before, but there is not a close adherence to quoted figures when quick buyers present themselves. Exporters still without profitable margins, and such business as prevails mainly on home account. We quote at $2.50\(\text{\text{d}}\) $2.76\(\text{\text{d}}\) retrictions (5) $1.00\(\text{d}\) $2.60\(\text{\text{d}}\) $2.76\(\text{\text{d}}\) retrictions (5) $1.00\(\text{d}\) $1.00\(\t spirits turner the same period ast year, 0,001.

Spirits turners, but, with a good demand from day to day throughout the week, prices have been sustained with case, and at the present writing show much general strength. Some sales have been made to arrive at about the rates current for goods on the spot, and with only a moderate accumulation in yard, holders appear to have gained confidence. Foreign shippers remain quiet, and the outlet is mainly local and on near-by interior account. We quote at 47@47½c. for New York bbls; 48@49c. for small parcels, and retail lots from store in proportion small parcels, and retail lots from store in proportion. Receipts for week, 1326 bbls; since January 1st, 57,287 bbls. Exports for week, 84 bbls; since January 1st, 17,075 bbls; and for the same period last year, 17,234.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus' report for the week ending Novembes 2,

1869, says:

The receipts, mostly the accumulations beyond the break, are large and materially reduce the deficiency in the receipts for the season. The receipts last year from November 7th to the close of navigation were about 54,000,000 feet and we must have 70,000,000 feet henceforward to the close to bring us up to the receipts of 1868. We do not see how it is to be done.

The market on the whole is firmer, with a tendency to an advance in prices. The assortment of seasoned lumber and of tally boards is short, and though we make no change in figures, our extreme quotations are readily obtained. Coarse lumber is very scarce and very firm.

The high rates of Canal freights—$8,50@8,75 for soft wood, and $10.50@$11.00 for hard wood from Buffalo, and $0.75 from Oswego—checks the shipment of lumber at

The Oswego Times reports the receipts of lumber at that place for three years to November 1st:

The receipts at Chicago for the week ending Nov. 6th, were 24,514,000 feet, against 34,031,000 feet for the corresponding week last year. The shipments for the week 13,347,000 feet, against 15,662,000 for the corresponding week in 1868. The aggregate receipts since January 1st, are 923,611,000 feet, against 928,591,000 feet in 1863. The aggregate shipments since January 1st, are 560,660,000 feet, against 499,877,000 feet in 1863.
