THE ORIGIN OF THE CENTRAL PARK.

ALL great aqueducts, parks, or works of great public benefit, usually have their origin in some personal or selfish object the projector desires to attain. This, however, does not detract from the credit due to him for the suggestion; and we desire to place before our readers the name of the citizen to whom we are chiefly indebted for the CENTRAL PARK.

In March, 1848, the Sheriff sold at auction, under foreclosure, a tract of about ten acres of land, in a wild rocky part of the County of New York, legally called the City of New York; although all the benefit derived by owners of most of the land lying between Forty-second street and One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, excepting the villages of Bloomingdale, Harlem, and Yorkville, was that of having the right to show it on the City Map as lots of 25 by 100 feet, and affording increased facilities for sales by such divisions. But for this, they were assessed heavier for taxes.

The property we allude to was bounded by the Fifth and Sixth avenues, and Eighty-fourth, Eighty-fifth and Eighty-sixth streets, making two entire squares on the City Map, or 144 city lots. The sale was effected for seven thousand dollars per square; or, about one hundred dollars per lot. The buyers were two enterprising citizens of a bold, speculative cast of mind, named John F. Seaman and Edgar H. Laing. As the discovery of gold in California, and the completion of the Hudson River Railroad, were in 1850 causing increased prices for lots below Fourteenth street, and some agitation along the North river, as far up as Fort Washington, they hoped to avail of it, by sacrificing their bargain. They found that there were no speculative buyers for centrally located lots, like their property. The wealthy men of the day did not seek investments beyond Fourteenth street that were unapproachable by the county roads, and where the expenses of grading would in the future be so enormous.

As buyers held aloof, they finally distrusted their own judgment, and became anxious to realize the cash, before taxation at three dollars per lot consumed the principal. Finally, Seaman, who was always remarkable for nerve, decided to agitate the public mind for a Grand Park. He soon found that other owners would be willing to come into the scheme, and sacrifice the future value of their property to the city, if they could persuade the authorities to properly consider that sacrifice, in estimates of present value.

The proprietors of Jones' Wood saw their opportunity, and entered the lists in competition: they dwelt upon the facilities of access from the river; their noble trees; a Park already; etc., etc. They had family wealth and judicial influence.

The Central party had numbers, and their persistent outcries carried the day. The contest was a warm one; the public became interested, and finally believed they wanted a Park, and that the time had come to secure the land. In November, 1853, the Legislature passed an act ordering Commissioners to be appointed. The Commissioners were appointed the same year, and in 1856 proceeded to appraise and take the land lying between Fifty-ninth and One Hundred and Sixth streets and the Fifth and Eighth avenues for a public Park, which, in the discussions in the papers of the day, had already been designated as the Central Park, to distinguish it from the Jones' Wood Park. The report was confirmed by the Supreme Court in 1857. The work on the Park was commenced in 1857, in which year the public place was legally named the Central Park: and by the great energy shown by the gentlemen who were appointed to act as Commissioners for its future uses, a portion of the Park was opened in 1858, and afterwards yearly, as work on it admitted.

Messrs. Seaman and Laing received about $500 per lot for their 142 lots, which, in 1858, they properly considered inadequate for their exertions, and much below actual sales current in that year, between the Fourth and Fifth avenues, east of their squares. The limits of the Park were extended northerly, afterwards, to One Hundred and Tenth street, to take into it a picturesque series of hills of rocks, mostly purchased by speculators, with that view. This addition amounted to 12 city blocks. Although a speculative high price was allowed for this portion, the city made a good purchase, and is now enjoying a large revenue from it yearly, to which we will refer in another article.

TALL'S PATENT BUILDING MACHINE.

WE recently drew attention to the important strides which artificial stone has recently made among us; but—with the single exception of the grand staircase at Mr. GILSEY's new hotel—the material has hitherto been here confined to the formation of sidewalks, floors for breweries and sugar-houses, and other places where strength, durability, and imperviousness to damp were the only requisites. In England they seem to have gone far beyond this, and a Mr. JOSEPH TALL has within the last few years invented a machine for applying this material to building purposes, which has not only already wrought a great revolution in the buildings of England and France, but bids fair to do so in other parts of the world. So far back as 1866, Mr. W. E. Newton, the celebrated English civil engineer, who was employed by the Emperor Napoleon in the erection of fifty model lodging-houses for the poorer classes in Paris, recommended Tall's system to the emperor, who adopted it, and thereby won the gold medal for his lodging-houses, in the Paris Exhibition of 1867.

The qualities of artificial stone have been so long tested in sea-walls and other great public works of the kind in England, Germany, France, and other parts of Europe, during the last thirty or forty years; it is, moreover, so well known to have been largely used in public and private dwellings in periods of remotest antiquity, that nothing has hitherto prevented its use among the moderns, for the latter purpose, but the difficulty of finding out some simple and practical method by which the material, in its semi-fluid state at the time of formation, could be made available in the erection of isolated walls, and carried up to great heights. This Mr. Tall professes to have done, and the endorsement which both his apparatus and material—(for the latter of which, however, he claims no patent) have received from the most eminent architects and builders, as well as scientific bodies, leads to the conclusion that he has been eminently successful. Among others, the Architectural Association, before whom Mr. Tall was invited to read a paper explaining his system, fully approved of it, after submitting it to the most rigid examination. Beams, formed of hard-burned bricks, united by Portland cement, were projected from perpendicular surfaces and then subjected to enormous weights, by leverage, to test their strength; and in every case it was found that the bricks broke before the cement would give way. They then took a block of this artificial stone, 3 feet long, 11 inches wide, and only 4½ inches thick, and with a bearing of only about half an inch at each end, a scale was suspended by a chain passing over the centre of the block. The scale was now loaded with iron weights until one ton and sixteen hundred weight (all the weights on hand) were suspended to the block; but the latter showed no symptoms of breaking. If a piece of this material, only 4½ inches thick, could bear so great a weight, all present naturally concluded that if made of the ordinary thickness of a door or window head, its sustaining power must be enormous, and far surpassing what is usually expected of any stone in common use.

Mr. Tall's apparatus may be briefly described as a continuous trough, eighteen inches deep, lined with zinc and made adjustable, by the use of bolts, to any desired thickness of walling. Besides this trough or horizontal frame, he has movable angle pieces about seven feet high, adapted to internal and external angles of the walls, which at every move upwards is bolted to the wall, thus carrying the latter up true and perpendicular to any height; and, in addition to these, are brackets for supporting the scaffolding by inserting cores into the concrete material at the proper times and places, through which the brackets are bolted like the other portions of the apparatus. Provided with this simple arrangement, eighteen inches of the walls can be easily carried up each day, and by such unskilled labor that, in the model houses of the Emperor Napoleon, the first idlers were picked up on the boulevards for the purpose, and set to work at two and a half francs a day. The best proof of the strength of this material can be gleaned from the fact that the wall to which the scaffold bracket is attached has to carry the whole weight of scaffold, men, and materials; and not only has it to meet this as a vertical pressure, but with the whole weight acting as a lever to pull the wall over. This, too, is applied to that fresh portion of the wall which was only built the day before.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

BELLOW we give our usual monthly summary of the recorded real estate transactions, for New York city, which shows that for the first three months of the present year the total amount of sales exceeds that of 1870 by more than $5,000,000. It will be noticed, however, that the number of feet frontage sold since January, 1871, is less by nearly 10,000 feet than for the corresponding time of the year 1870, while the amount of value represented is very largely in favor of the present year. The reason of this is that the sales have been confined principally to improved property, or very choice unimproved property. A large amount of Fifth avenue property and Eighth avenue Central Park lots were sold during the month of March. Among the many notable purchases may be mentioned that of August Belmont, of the whole frontage of the block on Eighth avenue, between Seventy-second and Seventy-third streets, running back 375 feet, comprising thirty lots, for which he paid $375,000. It is expected that this purchase will be followed up by others on account of French capitalists. The recent disturbances in Paris will cause thousands of people to look around for some safe place for their money and their families; and what place now offers so many advantages as New York city? A notable sale of Fifth avenue property was made last month to Mr. Jeremiah T. Smith, of the five lots on the northeast corner of Fifth avenue and Fifty-eighth street, with a frontage of 100 feet 5 inches on the avenue, and 125 feet on the street, the price paid being $368,500. It is the intention of Mr. Smith, who now owns the whole frontage on Fifth avenue, of the block between Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth streets, to build a magnificent hotel, to be called the Central Park Hotel, and we believe the contracts for building, etc., are already out, and ground will be broken about the first of May. The class of buyers now operating in real estate comprises men who are wealthy, and who are buying chiefly for permanent investments. The market is in a much better condition than at any time during last year.

MARKET REVIEW.

BRICKS.—The market for hard brick is no higher than at the date of our last report, but the prices remain very firm, the business doing very good, and the general tone quite healthy. In reality the call on city account is somewhat smaller, as most dealers and consumers have met their urgent wants, but, with a corresponding falling off in the arrivals, receivers experience no difficulty in keeping pretty much all the cargoes coming to hand quite closely sold up. Another help is a continued good shipping demand, a number of cargoes going out for the Southern coast, Florida, Galveston, etc., and a comparatively lively trade prevailing with ports along Long Island Sound, etc., from Flushing all the way to Providence, R. I., one or two vessels running regularly to the latter point, and as usual taking only the very best of stock. The average quality of the stock now available is fair. We learn of one or two sales very fancy at \$9.75@\$10 per M., but these are hardly quotable, and the general range may be placed at \$8.25@\$0.25 per M., for common to choice, with the bulk realizing about \$8.75@\$9 per M. From up the river we learn that a large number of manufacturers have now fully commenced work, and are pushing the production vigorously, with every prospect that we shall have new brick on the market from the 1st to the 10th prox. About as many kilns as last year will be under way, as the prospective call is thought to warrant such a course. From New Jersey very little stock is now coming in, most of the shipments going to Newark. The Long Island yards continue to send in a few cargoes, but they do not improve in quality, and have no regular market value. The demand for pale brick has continued first rate, and the market quite firm at full former rates, with something of an upward tendency as we write. A few very ordinary grades have changed hands at \$5.75 per M., but \$6 is the usual rate, and for extra cargoes sellers sometimes manage to obtain 25c@\$37 $\frac{1}{4}$ per M. additional. The small supply gives sellers their advantage, and the offerings are not likely to increase, as manufacturers will want what little stock they have on hand to wall up their arches for a month or two, or even longer. The inquiry for Croton Fronts does not meet the anticipations of the trade, and we find some little complaining extant. The supply on hand is pretty full, and much of it should be sold, but the quality is too good and the size undesirable to be used as a substitute for hard, and the quality not good enough to compete with the now comparatively cheap Philadelphia, and stone and iron fronts. The nominal cargo rates are \$12 per M. for brown, \$13 for dark, and \$14 for red. The price of Philadelphia Fronts is not as yet fully determined, but the supposition is that figures will range at about \$25@\$30 per M. by cargo, delivered on pier at this point.

CEMENT.—The demand has been fair in a general way and quite a number of contracts made for summer delivery, but the attendance of buyers was at no time large and the anxiety to secure supplies much less apparent than usual at this season. One great cause of the slow movement is the fact that though a few city retail dealers ran out of supplies during the winter months, great many carried over larger stocks than usual, and until these are sold out will not contract for anything additional, as the goods, if held too long, will become air slacked and unmerchantable, and prove dead loss. There will, however, probably be a fair summer trade, though, in conformity with the movements of all other articles of merchandise buyers are evidently determined to operate closely to their most positive wants. Manufacturers of cement, however, feel, or assume to feel, a confident tone as to the season's business, and predict quite as large sales as last year. A large call is looked for from the eastward, where private and public building operations are projected on a liberal scale; the manufacturers of cement pipe, building blocks, pavements, etc., will consume a goodly amount of stock according to present indications; the Southern shipments promise fairly, and there is reason to believe that the California market has again become pretty well depleted and will require a goodly amount of stock. The facilities for production this season are first class, and the mills are now nearly all grinding, though they have been unable as yet to fill all the vessels applying for cargoes, and Rondout creek and vicinity has for a week or two presented quite a busy scene. We note recent shipments of 1,600 bbls. cement to San Francisco.

LATH.—With the first rush of the spring receipts over and cargoes coming in more regularly and to a less liberal extent, the market does not show quite so uncertain a tone, and the reactionary feeling noted in our last is very fairly sustained on all good stock. There is also a fair current demand, the more favorable weather and larger call from consumers increasing the distribution from yard, and inducing the looking out for cargoes to make good the lots sold. Dealers, however, are not operating in a careless or reckless manner, and the design appears to be to keep just enough stock on hand to meet the average call, and take all the chances of replacing the same when it becomes necessary. There is the usual reports prevailing about scarcity of lath and freight room, and a determination to hold back stock, but these have become so common whenever values recede to any extent that they deserve and receive very little attention. As we close there is a moderate supply available, and some little demand prevailing from dealers who want stock to carry them along for a week or two, and receivers show more firmness. The bulk of the sales were at $2.25 per M., and choice lots have reached $2.35 per M. and this is now generally asked.

LIME.—The market as usual develops very few interesting features, the volume of business being regulated by the amount of stock received, and the amount of stock received regulated by the wants of the trade, the combination of the leading Eastern manufacturers under one agency making everything work smoothly—for the selling interest. Dealers in the city and vicinity are commencing to run low on supplies, and, as they are all more or less willing to take in a little stock, there is a probability that a few more cargoes will soon kindly be allowed to come forward.

REAL ESTATE RECORD.

Prices cannot even be guessed at beyond current sales, and predictions are useless. The State Lime is now very fairly sold up and dull, but with the canals to open on Tuesday next, there is a probability of early arrivals and a more decided market. There is not much stock offering at the close, but buyers somewhat indifferent, and the market void of any unusual amount of tone. Common, $1.40, and up, $1.75 per bbl.

LUMBER.—The amount of trade doing at the yards is very fair and gradually increasing according to most reports, the calls from local sources now making a very fair aggregate from day to day, and the shipping orders calling for about the same amounts as heretofore. Prices are steady as a rule and the general tone of the market fairly encouraging, though with the continued cautious policy of buyers and their evident determination to keep movements down to close basis of actual wants. The accumulation of profits on current transactions is not likely to prove very large. The outlet is still supplied from old stock in yard as there is no point from which fresh stocks can be drawn, but there is enough lumber here, not only for present wants, but to last until new offerings are made. Very few dealers are contracting for the coming season, as they think better terms can be obtained by waiting.

The wholesale market changes but little, the business being regulated by the amounts immediately available, though now and then a few orders are received for special lengths. Public accounts from the various points of production are, as usual at this season, teeming with doleful tales of the ill success of the lumbermen in the woods, the difficulties that manufacturers are about to experience in meeting their contracts, and the high prices to be asked, with now and then a sale given at extreme figures, as a sort of index of what may be expected. Buyers, however, do not believe that there is any reason for advance in lumber and the majority still think that a decline is sure, while in any case the distribution present and prospective is not of a character to warrant undue haste in securing stocks. Exporters continue to pick up a few odd lots occasionally at this point, but the arrangements for large shipments are likely to be made at the depots on the St. Lawrence, etc.

Eastern Spruce has been in very fair supply, the demand pretty good, and prices unchanged. Receivers as a rule offered their cargoes as they came to hand without any great amount of hesitation, and on grades below strictly choice were not very firm as to prices; but the few really fine specifications have attracted enough anxious attention from the dealers to give them at all times a full value and extreme figures were generally insisted upon. The production is now under way to some extent, and supplies will be on hand at the mills at least during the balance of the season, but whether they will be allowed to come forward is a question. Manufacturers have set their minds on full figures for this season, and intimate that if they do not realize their expectations, lumber will be held back, the success of previous years generating a feeling of independence. It is doubtful, however, if buyers can be forced into operating beyond their most positive wants, and unless the consumption increases materially, the market is likely to rule dull. As we close business is rather moderate, as the amount of stock here is small, with prices ruling about as last week. We quote at $17@19 for ordinary to prime; and $19.50@20.50 for choice. White Pine continues to move moderately, as wanted for shipment abroad, with now and then a country order, and some lots for manufacturing use. Box makers, however, are not busy this spring, and afford a comparatively small outlet for lumber. The supplies hold out very well, and the assortment is equal to the call. We quote at $18@20 per M for inferior to fair cuts, $21@23 do for good stock, $24@25 do for prime to choice shipping grades, and $26@30 do for selections.

Yellow Pine is in comparatively small supply, the demand good and improving, and the entire market pretty firm, with this class of stock relatively cheaper than any other on the market. We quote at $34@30 per M for fair to good cargoes, and $31@32 do for prime to do. Eastern shingles have been in fair demand, with sales of No. 1 at $4.50@4.75 per M.

The Chicago market for last week is represented by the Times as follows:

CARGOES.—Notwithstanding Saturday is usually regarded as an unfavorable day for the wholesale lumber trade, last Saturday proved an exception to the rule. A large number of cargoes of lumber arrived, and as there was an active demand from city and country buyers, a dozen or more offerings changed hands, prices ruling firm for all descriptions. Sales of joist, scantling, and common mixed lumber ranged at $12.50@14, while good to choice strip cargoes found ready sales at $15@16. Shingles were in good request, sales being reported at $3.62@3.70 for "A" brands.

The Saginaw Courier of recent date contains the following:—

There is an activity in the lumber market somewhat unusual at this or any other season of the year. A large number of buyers are in the market from the east, west, and south, who, as a rule, readily concede the top prices which have ruled during the winter. There is no dry stock on hand, but green is going off lively in small lots. We hear of very large sales. Six, twelve, and thirty-five dollars seem to be the ruling figures, and much better are obtained in many instances. Thompson & Co. have sold one lot of a million and a half at $6, $12, $30, $35 and $40, to different parties in Cincinnati. Wm. Peters sold during the week, to Smith, Kelly & Co., of Toledo, 500 M feet at $6, $12 and $35. Edwards & Sanborn, 500 M dry lumber at Tawas, at $8, $10, $12, $13, and $35. These are about the quotations, and will likely hold good for the next sixty days.

Reports from the lumbering districts are highly gratifying. The late rain and the general break-up about the same time, and consequent high water, have put all the logs afloat. On the Rife all the logs are coming down, except, perhaps, about four million belonging to H. W. Sage, on the west branch, which are the only ones in doubt. About sixty million will come out of this stream, and about thirty or thirty-five out of the Au Gres. On the Chippewa and Tittabawasee the logs are all right, including those laid over from last year. The north branch of the Chippewa is likely to be drove the first time for years. Two dams have broken at the head of the Chippewa, and it is reported that Messrs. Burt and Brewer will have about five million hung up at this point. With these exceptions, we hear of no logs likely to lay over. Should the whole stock be got out, there will nevertheless be a less amount than was calculated during the winter, and a supply inadequate to the mills.

At Saginaw, Mich., the following are the quotations for dressed lumber by car-load at mills:—

The St. Louis lumber market is reported by Griffin & O'Connor as follows:—

There was a fair business done on the levee and at the depots. Yellow pine flooring continues to rule active and firm. Poplar boards in fair demand and firm; do strips dull—supply in excess of the wants of the trade. Oak unsalable—stocks in the hands of manufacturers large. Ash very slow—no inquiry for thick; inch in moderate request. Black walnut inactive and easy for buyers—good and choice only salable. Cedar unchanged. Sycamore steady. Cedar posts in demand and firm. We quote: Yellow pine flooring at $20@22.50 for common green, and $23@24 to $25@26 for fair to choice; $26@30 for common to choice dry; mill-run dimension at $15@16. Poplar at $15@20 for boards and strips, as in quality. Black walnut at $20@25 for inferior; $30@35@40 for fair to good and choice, and $42.50@45 for strictly choice. Oak at $18@24 for levee lots, and $26@28@32.50 on orders. Ash at $23@25@26 for common to choice—order lots at higher rates. Sycamore at $19@20. Cedar at $20@25 for hewn, and $25@30 for sawed—order lots at higher rates.

The following is the regular Boston report:—

The Lumber market is active; there continues to be a good demand for all grades wanted for present use, and prices are well maintained. The early arrivals from the Eastward fall far short of the quantity received at the corresponding time last year. This may in part be accounted for by the protracted drought of last season, lessening the production materially, so that Eastern manufacturers did not produce their usual surplus to winter over in readiness for the early spring trade. Among other reasons for the scarcity of some grades of coarse lumber, may be mentioned the loss of nearly ten million feet of hemlock, coarse pine boards and spruce, at the great fire in Calais, Me., last season.

Eastern manufacturers are still backward in starting up their mills. Those who are in condition are full of orders and are hurrying the lumber forward to market as fast as possible. Stocks of all kinds of lumber are light here, and desirable cargoes are quickly taken by the dealers at quoted rates. Dry pine finishing lumber is in short supply.

We note no change in prices, but quotations are firm; and while the demand for building is unusually large (notwithstanding the reports in some of the city papers that it is no larger than last season), yet the supply to come forward promises to be equal to the demand.

Improved facilities for transportation by railroad and canal have changed the character of the lumber business. While formerly the supply for this market came almost wholly from Bangor and St. John, and our buildings were furnished principally with pine, the prices of lumber depended largely upon the resources of Maine and the maritime Provinces; but now, with the vast pine forests of Canada, Michigan, and Wisconsin, the ash, black walnut, whitewood, etc., of the Western States, to draw upon and made available by the development of internal transportation, our lumber market is not seriously affected by the droughts, freshets, and disasters of any one section, but is kept steady by the great laws of supply and demand.

In Canada lumber, there is a scarcity of many grades, but the demand is brisk and prices are firm. The new stock will commence arriving next month, though of new well-seasoned lumber there will not be much received for two or three months.

From Savannah we have the following:—

LUMBER.—The demand for lumber during the past week has been good, there being more orders offering than at any time for the past season. The mills are all full of work, and prices are firm. We quote:—

TIMBER.—The receipts of timber have been light, and most of the timber cut this season has been received; therefore, further receipts cannot be looked for in any quantity. We quote:—

METALS.—There still prevails the usual demand for Manufactured Copper; prices do not vary and are becoming somewhat nominal. We quote at 21 1/2 @ 22 for new sheathing, and 19 @ 20 for old sheathing, cleaned. The market for Ingots Copper has been quite active; most of the business was done during the early part of the week—the stock now being much reduced. About two millions of pounds changed hands. Prices have advanced and close firm. We quote at 21 1/2 @ 21 1/2 per lb.; and 21 1/2 @ 21 1/2 for retail lots. Holders of Scotch Pig Iron have advanced their views, owing to the reduced supply on hand, but the operations have been on a moderate scale and confined to small parcels for the trade. We quote at $32 @ $36 per ton. American Pig Iron has been in improved demand and with a reduced supply. Prices have been firm and sustained. We quote at 34 @ 36 for No. 1; 32 @ 34 for No. 2; and 31 @ 32 for forge. Bar Iron has met with a fair demand, and the market ruled quite steady. We quote from store at about $77.50 @ 78 for refined; $70 @ 72.50 for common; $110 @ 115 for Swedes, ordinary sizes; $100 @ 120 for scroll; $95 @ 105 for ovals and half round; 92.50 @ 95 for band; $93 for horseshoe; $100 @ 140 for hoop; $82.50 @ 120 for rods (5-8 and 3-16 inch); and 6% per lb for nail rod, all cash. Common Sheet Iron is still scarce in fair demand from the trade, and prices are firm. We quote at 4 1/2 @ 6 for singles, doubles, and trebles. Galvanized Sheet continues firm for all sizes, and a steady fair trade may be noted. We quote at 9 1/2 @ 10c for 14 @ 20; 11c for 22 @ 24; 12c for 25 @ 26; and 13 @ 14c for 27 @ 29, all net cash. Russia Sheet remains steady with a moderate business. We quote at 10 1/2 @ 11, gold, according to number. The demand for Pig Lead has been fair in the market. There is a prospect of the Government reducing the price five cents per 100 lbs. We quote at $6.15 @ 6.20, gold, for common to prime foreign. Manufactured ruled steady, the demand moderate. We quote at 8 1/2 c for bar, and 10 1/4 c for sheet and pipe, less ten per cent to the trade, and tin-lined pipe 15c cash, less two cents to the trade. The market for Pig Tin continues dull; but with favorable cable advices from London (Straits there £133) prices are firm. We quote in coin at about 32 1/2 @ 32 1/2 c for English; 32 1/2 @ 33 1/2 c for Straits; and 38 1/2 @ 38 1/2 c for Banca. Plats, under favorable European advices, have advanced, though not materially. The business has been quite large, and at the close there is a very good inquiry.

NAILS.—The market has continued in a comparatively dull condition, indeed at times business was almost prostrate, and some dealers inclined to feel a little discouraged at finding the recent favorable prospects so suddenly dissipated. The market however has, on the whole, been fairly sustained up to the present writing, and we make no decided alteration in quotations. The stocks are slowly increasing and the assortment equal to the current call and easily available. The letters from the interior do not indicate any anxiety or hurry on the part of buyers, but lead to hopes of an early increase of the distribution. Exporters are somewhat indifferent at the moment. We quote per 100 lb.: cut, 10d to 20d, $4.65; cut, 8d @ 9d, $4.90; cut, 6d @ 7d, $5.15; cut, 4d @ 5d, $5.40; cut, 3d, $6.15; cut, 2d @ 3d, fine, $6.90; cut spikes, all sizes, $4.90; cut finishing, casing, box, etc. $6.15; clinch, $6.15 @ 6.40; horseshoe, forged, No. 10 to 5, per lb., 19 @ 21c. Other styles are selling as follows:—Copper, 37c per lb; yellow metal, 22c do; zinc, 16c do. The exports for the week are 18 pkgs, valued at $164; and since January 1st, $4,181 pkgs, valued at $26,614. We also notice shipments of 3,070 pkgs to San Francisco.

PAINTS AND OILS.—The demand for wholesale parcels continues very active, and the market for many of the leading grades is not only sold well up to the supply, but in some cases oversold, increased wants sending jobbers into the market again. Throughout the entire movement, however, we again notice a spirit of much caution, and a most decided determination to take no more goods than can be used to immediate advantage, and advance or a decline being alike regarded indifferently by buyers, provided they can keep operations within the bounds of actual wants. The amounts due with a week or two are small, but additional shipments from abroad are understood to have commenced some time ago, and will afford relief probably by the commencement of next month. Among the jobbers we find a first rate distributive business reported, and very full prices obtained. Some of the agencies for American goods have been obliged to temporarily refuse taking orders in order to permit them to complete previous contracts, though as a rule all calls are now being met. Linseed oil continues in a most favorable position for the selling interest, a pretty good demand keeping all the surplus stock off the market, and the monopoly in the shape of the Crushers' Association finding matters well in hand for the time being once more putting up prices, with a hint that a further advance may be looked for should the call continue as brisk as at present. There does not appear to be any "outside lots" offering at the moment, but they may be looked for should business become a little slack.

Exports as follows:

	This week.	Since Jan. 1, 1871.
Paint.....	pkgs, 318 value $3,057	3,059 value $39,040
Linseed oil, gall.	" 81	2,706 " 2,648
Oxide Zinc, pkcs,	" 629 "	7,166

PITCH.—There is only a small jobbing demand from the home trade at former, though somewhat nominal, prices. We quote $2.72 @ 2.77 1/2 for city; $2.75 @ 3 for Southern; and small lots, very choice, in a jobbing way from store, at $3 @ 3.25. Receipts for the week, 20 bbls; since January 1st, 200 bbls; same time last year, 1,580. Exports for week, 116 bbls; since January 1st, 802 bbls; same time last year, 1,549 bbls.

SLATE.—Our city dealers are complaining of the dull condition of trade, and assure us they have positively nothing new or interesting to report. The call from city consumers at the best is moderate, and to a large extent supplied direct from the quarrymen, who, acting as their own agents, deal directly with roofers and contractors for a few squares on an order, and frequently at a lower figure than they are willing to serve the regular trade. We retain former quotations as showing about as near the market as may be, for while sellers would hardly operate on easier terms, it would be difficult for them to realize anything higher. The stock here is not very large, but fair when the outlet is considered, and the assortment is equal to any ordinary call. At some of the leading quarries preparations are making to commence work, but many of the smaller producers remain perfectly idle as yet; even to the extent of allowing the water to remain just as it has collected from the spring freshets, and assert that prevailing prices will not pay them to mine the rock. The probable wants of the West have not developed as yet, but it is thought the call will be smaller than last year.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The supply is almost nothing, and with a good demand, part speculative and part consumptive, the market has been very much excited at an advance of about 10c per gallon, closing, however, excited and irregular. Nearly all the lots to arrive have been sold. We quote at $3 @ 65c for merchantable and shipping order, and 6 1/2c @ 65c for N.Y. bbl; small lots at 67c @ 68c, and retail lots from store, 68 @ 70c. Receipts for the week, 316 bbls; since January 1st, 13,164 bbls; and for the same period last year, 15,684 bbls. Exports for the week, 69 bbls; since January 1st, 4,516 bbls; and for the same period last year, 5,844.

TAR.—There is rather more business doing, but the market cannot be called other than quiet; prices rule about steadily as formerly quoted. We quote as follows:—$2.40 @ 2.60 per bbl for North County, as it runs; $2.65 @ 2.75 per bbl for Wilmington, and $3.15 @ 3 for rope, and occasionally $3 @ 3.25 for something very choice in a small way. Receipts for the week, 1,076 bbls; since January 1st, 8,060 bbls; for corresponding period last year, 33,301 bbls. Exports for week, 477; since January 1st, 1,722 bbls; and corresponding period last year, 4,247 bbls.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus' report for the week ending April 11, 1871, is as follows:—

The demand for Lumber has been fair during the week; but we cannot look for much activity until after the opening of the Erie canal. The activity reported at New York, Boston and at other points is favorable for a good trade with us. The Maine markets are firm on Spruce and Hemlock on account of a short supply of logs; this will have a tendency to keep up prices of coarse lumber here, of which the stock is light, though receipts may be soon expected by the Champlain canal, which was opened yesterday. A sale of Black Walnut, covering, it is said, 500,000 feet, was made last week to New York parties, who bought in anticipation of an advance in prices, based on light supplies, present and prospective. We quote River and Eastern freights as follows:—
