NEW POST-OFFICE.

SINCE we were destined, apparently, to have the new Post Office located where it is—a choice of location which to this day appears to a large majority a very serious blunder—it is at least a matter of congratulation that the unwelcome intruder promises to be a building worthy of this great metropolis. Whether judged by its internal arrangement, its solidity of construction, or its effect externally, no public building hitherto erected in New York was ever more adapted to the purposes intended, or proved a greater ornament to the city than this will be when completed. Few who daily watch those enormous derricks lifting huge masses of granite weighing many tons, and placing them in their bed as easily and mechanically as an elephant would move a twig with his trunk, probably appreciate the vast size of this structure, and consequently the very great celerity with which it has been reared so far, and is still advancing. Unlike other edifices, which have ordinarily to deal with only one or two fronts, the new Post Office has four, embracing—with the breaks and recesses—a total of some 1,400 running feet of frontage; which is equivalent in length to 56 houses, of 25 feet frontage, placed side by side along a street. The length of frontage on Broadway and Park Row is 290 feet, on the north side facing the City Hall 300 feet, and on the south side 130 feet. The cellar is 12 feet deep, in the clear, the basement 17 feet, the ground story 30 feet, the second story 23 feet, the third story 26 feet, the attic 18 feet, and the dome 22 feet; thus forming, from the ground line to the top of dome, a total height of over 125 feet. The excavation alone was something enormous—100,000 cubic yards of solid earth having had to be removed before the building could be commenced. Up to the present time it has consumed 450,000 cubic feet of granite, 4,500,000 lbs. of iron, and 6,500,000 bricks for the inner walls. Timber, as a material, has been utterly ignored throughout, except for the temporary purposes of scaffolding, etc.

Ground was broken for the new Post Office in 1869, but owing to the great amount of excavation to be accomplished, for a building covering not less than an acre and an eighth of space, but still more owing to the difficulties of obtaining timely appropriations from Congress, the work seemed to hang heavily in its first stages; as indeed all buildings do when engaged with their underworks; where there is so much to be done, and yet, to the unpractised looker-on, so little to show for it. It was not till the spring of 1871 that it fairly commenced operations above ground, and, the money supplies having since then been more regularly forthcoming, there can be no question that the works have been pushed with extraordinary celerity—especially during the present summer. So far advanced already are the inner walls, the progress of which, and the labor involved are but little appreciated by those who judge only from the exterior, that the Superintendent confidently expects to start the roof on Broadway by the end of October. An attempt was recently made in a daily contemporary to institute a comparison between the progress of the New York Zeitung's new building and that of the new Post Office. But such a comparison is altogether unfair; the circumstances of the two buildings being so utterly dissimilar as to admit of no comparison whatever. As well attempt a race between the construction of a little pleasure yacht and an iron-clad man-of-war. The Zeitung building, a very creditable construction and very solidly built, is, nevertheless, quite insignificant alongside of the structure with which it was sought to compare it. It cannot have more than 300 feet of frontage, whereas, as we said before, the Post Office measures 1,400 feet. Indeed it would be no exaggeration to state that, by actual measurement, the Zeitung building could, when completed, be conveniently put into the south-west projection of the new Post Office. Where the comparison can justly be made, and should be made, is between the latter building and that monstrous monument of degraded taste and official corruption—the Court House. And what a contrast! Here is a building of certainly not one-third the size of the new Post Office, cut out of soft marble and not hard granite, which took long years to reach even its present unfinished condition, and which has probably already squandered some 11,000,000 of dollars, while the Post Office, of three times its size, built far more solidly, and erected complete in one-third the time, will not, at the utmost, exceed $4,000,000 in cost. If it should ultimately prove not to exceed that figure, it may be justly pronounced one of the cheapest buildings, public or private, ever erected in this city.

We have hitherto spoken only of the solid and material features of this building, but, taken in an artistic point of view, it will equally bear criticism. With the single exceptions of the Equitable Insurance building, and the new Masonic Temple, there is no civil building yet erected in this city, of a classical order, which can at all compare with it in solid and substantial dignity, while its enormous size will enable it to overshadow both the last-mentioned structures. It is of the Roman Doric order, with well-proportioned columns, pilasters and entablatures, enclosing arched windows of extremely graceful dimensions, with deep and effective jambs and recesses which give an appearance at once of great strength and beauty. The idea of rusticating the columns and pilasters of the first story will not be thoroughly appreciated until the building is complete; then it will be seen that having done so adds great massiveness and apparent strength to the lower story, which supports the great impending mass of masonry. One very pleasing feature is the skilfulness with which the various elevations have been adapted to the peculiar triangular form of the site; the building, viewed from each of the four corners, giving at every turn a fresh and varied aspect. When completed, the Post Office will completely dwarf all other objects in its immediate neighborhood. The Astor House and Herald office will look as if they could be stowed away in some corner of its basement, and even the venerable City Hall will shrink into the dimensions of some old-fashioned toy. It may be, perhaps, to avoid this that some of our sapient city fathers have recently been agitating the question of crowning the latter with a new story and a huge Mansart roof, as if such petty means could forestall the inevitable. They had much better leave such a notion alone. Instead of thereby adding anything to the dignity or beauty of the City Hall, they would only be converting that old structure, with which nobody at present finds fault, and for which every one feels a sort of local veneration, into a pitiful object of architectural pretension and absurdity.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

'With the return from the country of a number of prominent real estate operators, we have to note a slight improvement in the tone of the market, accompanied by a good inquiry for eligibly located up-town lots particularly such as happen to be situated near where contemplated or active improvements are in progress. The light list of recorded real estate transactions now being published is no indication of the activity in real estate, as a great number of purchasers prefer not to take title until after 1st of October, on which date the stamp-tax on real estate ceases to be a law. The sales of real estate for the month of August were $8,673,835, and for the same month of the preceding year $8,908,906. A number of special advertisements affecting up-town real estate are now being published, notifying property holders that application will be made to the Supreme Court for the appointment of Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment relative to acquiring title for the use of the public to all lands for laying out certain new streets, among which we note the following. On Monday, Oct. 14, Commissioners to be appointed relative to acquiring title to lands for opening a public drive northward from south side of 155th street to intersection of Kingsbridge and with Inwood street; also a new street parallel to 155th street and distant northerly therefrom 7,895 feet, to run easterly, commencing at Kingsbridge road thence across 10th avenue to the Boulevard near the Harlem river; also a new street or avenue extending in a south-easterly direction from the Kingsbridge road, at Inwood street, to the Harlem river; also, the street extending from Kingsbridge road in a north-easterly direction to the Tenth avenue, at a point distant 3,055 feet 3 inches northerly from the northerly side of the street extending from Kingsbridge road; at Inwood street, to the Harlem river; also, the street extending in a north-easterly direction from the Tenth avenue, at a point distant about 1,895 feet northerly from the northerly side of the street extending from Kingsbridge road at Inwood street, to the Harlem river; and also, the Tenth avenue, extending in a north-easterly direction from the street or avenue extending from Kingsbridge road, at Inwood street, to the Harlem river, to the intersection of said Tenth avenue with Kingsbridge road, as the several streets and avenues are known and designated on the map of the Department of Public Parks, filed in the office of the Register of the City and County of New York, and as laid out by resolution of the Commissioners of the Central Park, adopted December 13, 1866.

On Thursday, Oct. 17, application will be made for Commissioners for opening the Tenth avenue from a point 10,253 feet six inches northerly from the southerly side of One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, to a point 10,403 feet and six inches northerly from the southerly side of said One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street; and also the opening of the street or avenue extending from the Tenth avenue at a point 10,403 feet and six inches northerly from the southerly side of said One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, in a north-westerly, westerly and south-westerly direction to the Eleventh avenue.

MARKET REVIEW.

BRICK.—The week has shown no improvement in business and although the supply on hand is reported short, the arrivals from yards are falling off materially. This fact appears to arise from an indisposition on the part of brick makers to put more stock here than they can dispose of easily at this period. Buyers have not begun laying in their winter stock yet, and until some such absorbing demand as this has been created, it is most improbable that shipments will be increased this season. Besides, it is said that the brick makers have been so successful this summer that they are greatly disinclined to exert themselves any further, but prefer to keep the remainder of their stock in yard and await the chances of a depleted market next spring, when they might be able to dictate more substantial terms than could be realized in the present condition of the market. We retain our quotations of the past week as follows: Haverstraw Bay brick, $7.75@$8.50 per M.; Up-rivers and Jerseys, $7@$7.50; pale, $5@$5.25. Fronts, Crotons, $12@$16; Philadelphias, $40@$45 from yard.

HAIR.—Business has been very brisk; in fact, dealers have been pushed to deliver all they disposed of, and there seems to be no prospect of a cessation. We quote: Cattle, per bushel, 28c.

LATH.—There has been a good demand for the week, with the supply not well sustained, arrivals having fallen off. At the close the market was strong at $3.50 per M., with an advance imminent.

LIME.—The trade for the week has been just as active as it was possible to be with the light stock in the hands of dealers. In fact, the demand was altogether ahead of the supply. We quote for Bald Mountain, Port Ann, Glenn's Falls and Rockland, $1.25 per bbl for common, and $1.75 do for finishing.

LUMBER.—The market has had a fair share of activity for the week, some days being dull, but the major part of the time witnessing a good demand. No large sales are yet noticed, the purchases continuing to be chiefly for immediate use. While reports of lower freights come from the West, they have been ineffectual to move prices here or at points East of the lakes, and no hope is expressed that it will do so now. It is too late to do any good. At Albany the market holds firm, but an immense quantity of lumber is being piled up, said to be of an inferior grade, the market having been pretty well stripped of the better class of lumber. Whether this will have any ultimate effect there, remains to be seen.

Eastern Spruce is very steady at $17@$20, which range includes all grades.

The exports of lumber are as follows:—

From the Saginaw Courier, Sept. 21:—

Preparations are already being made for lumbering next winter, and men are even now going into the woods. Log running is still in progress on all the streams, but, except in the case of a very early close up, all the logs will be out of the booms this season, except perhaps the Tittabawasee, leaving them free. On the Cass the logs are nearly all out. On this stream the amount of logs run will foot up about 100,000,000 feet. The rear drive on Pine river has passed three miles below Alma, but from there is a solid jam of logs to the St. Louis dam. St. Louis pond is full of water, and when a sluice in the dam is made an immense number of logs can be set free. Without the aid of sluicing there are enough to keep the men at work ten days, when the weather permits.

The Bay City Journal says:—

It is generally admitted that operations in lumbering the coming winter are not to be carried on as extensively as they were last season. To state the reason of this apparent falling off, would be unnecessary repetition, for, as everybody has seen, heard and read, it can be explained in those two well-known words "hung up." The lumbermen of this section, are, however, going to engage to no small extent in stocking their respective mills, there having been already, which is early in the season, many new contracts made, which, with the contracts of last season, not yet completed, will give work to thousands, and laboring men already, in anticipation of the winter's work, are making their arrangements accordingly. Dealers in lumbermen's supplies are stocking their stores; in fact, everything is being done with an assurance showing that much labor will be done; a large quantity of supplies needed, and a large amount of capital invested.

The Journal further reports:—

Messrs. Whitman & Culver, of Bay City, sold during the past week, 500,000 feet of lumber to parties in St. Louis, Mo.; 600,000 feet of lumber to parties in New Haven, Conn.; four car loads to a firm at Leavenworth, Ks.; two car loads to Denver, Col.; four car loads to Boston, Mass., and 200,000 feet of lumber to Indianapolis, Ind. These shipments were made by rail in each case, and give conclusive evidence that the lumber trade of this city extends in every direction and to great distances. The cost of shipping lumber from this city to St. Louis is $30 per car, and to New Haven, Conn., it costs $120.

From the Chicago Times, Sept. 19:—

There was a good supply of vessels on the market on yesterday, and the demand was fair at declining rates. We quote:—

Manistee, $4.50; Ludington, $4.50; Pontwater, $4; Menomonee, $5.50; Muskegon, $3.75; Whitehill, $4; Grand River, $3.50; Green Bay, $6; Oconto, $7.

Another quiet day was experienced in the wholesale lumber market on yesterday, and as the receipts by lake were pretty large, prices were weak, with a strong declining tendency in common grades. Most of the city docks being full, city buyers were indifferent about purchasing, while little or nothing was done on shipping account, prices being too high for shippers to purchase. We quote the closing prices as follows:—

Choice mill-run lumber, $17@$22; Common strips and boards, $15@$16.50; Common mixed lumber, 13.50@14.50; Joist and scantling, $13; Shingles, $8.10@$12; Lath, $3@$3.25; Pickets, $10.

A correspondent writes from Summerton, Gratiot county, that a large proportion of the logs put in Salt river last winter still remain there, and it is probable that lumbering on that stream will be quite limited this season.

The Cass river at Bridgeport is higher now than it was last spring, and logs are running down at that point lively. About 8,000,000 feet of logs, heretofore considered hung up, passed Bridgeport Sunday.

There were no important new developments in the yard trade on yesterday. Buyers were in fair attendance, and the movement on both city and country account, though hardly as large as a fortnight ago, was yet fair for the season. Common grades of building lumber, such as boards, joist and scantling, were chiefly wanted, though upper grades were fairly active. The stocks were moderately large and prices remained firm.

Shingles on cars were in demand at the annexed unchanged prices:—

A or star shingles..... $3 12@3 25
No. 1, sawed..... 1 50@2 00

Three dollars per car to be added when transferred, which charge follows the shingles.

Thickness—Five shingles to be two inches in thickness.

Length—Sixteen inches.

The Times of the day previous says:—

Our daily receipts of lumber by lake have been very large during the past week, as will be noticed by the subjoined table of comparisons. There has been a large falling off in the attendance of operators, however, most of the city docks being filled up, and a dull and unsatisfactory business has been daily reported at the lumber exchange. Very few buyers from the interior have put in an appearance, and city buyers succeeded in depressing prices for all descriptions of lumber, except choice mill-run, from 25 to 50c per M.

The receipts and shipments in the same paper will be found of interest at this time. They are as follows:

A Muskegon paper says that the recent rains have set afloat every log that has been hung up on the main river, and the rear of the Big Drive is now above Newaygo, moving much more rapidly than at any time this season. The mills at Muskegon have enough logs now to keep running on full time, and no danger from shortage is apprehended during the few remaining weeks of the cutting season.

The St. Louis Globe, Sept. 21, quotes as follows:—

Chippewa, $17@18: Wisconsin, $17.50@25 in the water and on the bank. Shingles, $3.60. Lath, $2.65@3. Southern lumber quiet, but demand slowly increasing. We quote first and second rates dry and dry yellow pine flooring at $26@30: third rate, $15; dimension mill-run quiet at $15. Poplar in better demand; fair to strictly clear white boards wanted at $22@27.50; strips, $22@23; common, $18@20. Black walnut active and firm; common, $22.50@25; fair, $27.50@35; good and choice, $37.50@45. All sorts of oak dull; stock large, selling at $20@25. Small lots of choice hickory in request at $25@30. Choice ash available at $25@30; common neglected. Choice cedar posts in some request at $28; hewn cedar, $22.50@25; sawed, $23@27. The Toledo Blade, Sept. 21, quotes hardwoods as follows:—

Walnut, merchantable, dry, $65; 2d and culls, $29@30; merchantable, green, $50@52; 2d and culls, $22@25. Walnut timber, 5c; Veneer wood, 6@15c per foot; Oak ship timber, $220@250; Whitewood lumber, $28@30; Butternut, $26@40; Walnut flooring, $55; Ash flooring, $23.

From the Boston Commercial Bulletin, Sept. 22:—

The rainy weather of the past week has materially checked business in the lumber market, which continues to grow in volume as the season advances. Stocks at the retail yards are considerably smaller than at the corresponding time last year, and there seems to be a feeling among the retail dealers to carry as light a stock as possible through the fall.

Of Eastern lumber there have been no arrivals of account. The fog has kept back a large fleet of vessels both here and in the Eastern ports. There is a lack of freights from Maine to this place, a dispatch from Calais, received this morning, stating that there are no small vessels available there; Dimension lots of spruce, sawed to order, continue firm and in good demand. There is but little inquiry for hemlock boards, at unchanged prices. Coarse pine boards remain the same. Shingles are very dull. There is no demand for clapboards. Laths are in moderate request. The usual heavy shipments from Portland to this market have been diminishing this season, by the large quantities sent to New York, Philadelphia and other Southern ports.

The Eastern mills are full of work, with plenty of logs and water, and the business this season is expected to be conducted with satisfactory results.

The following are the surveys for the week:—

From the Savannah Republican, Sept. 20:—

Receipts of timber for the past week have been very light, all taken up on arrival at about our quotations. An active inquiry still exists for vessels for South America and coastwise. Wv quote:—

Mill timber, $6@8; shipping do, 600 feet average, $8@9; 700 feet average, $9@10; 800 feet average, $10@11; 900 feet average, $11@12; 1,000 feet average, $13@14.50.

LUMBER—active. Orders are plenty. We quote: Ordinary sizes, $18@21; difficult sizes, $21@26; flooring boards, $21@22; ship stuff, $20@24, according to size.

Vessels are in demand for lumber cargoes, but none are disengaged.

LUMBER.—To Philadelphia, $10; to New York and Sound ports, $12@14; to Boston and Eastern ports, $13@14; to Baltimore, $10; to Cuba, nominal; to River Plate, $23, and 5 per cent. prime. By steam to New York, $12. Timber freights are £1@1.50 higher than lumber rates.

From the New Orleans Price Current, Sept. 18:—

The stock on hand is ample, but the demand is extremely moderate compared to what it usually is at this season of the year. Shipments to foreign ports are being made direct from the mills. We note the following vessels loading at Pascagoula, to wit: Brig Raven, with 225,000; brig

James Miller, with $10,000, and brig Ocean Eagle, with $25,000 for New York; brig Julia E. Haskell, with $25,000, and brig —, with $30,000 for Boston, and a Spanish bark, for Havana, with 350,000 feet.

Cargo lots are quoted at $14@15 per M feet for inch boards; $12@14 for scantling; $13@14 for rough weatherboards, and $16@18 for dressed. Rough flooring is selling at $15@18, and dressed, $22@25.50; dressed ceiling, $18@20; Cypress, $20@25; Common Shingles, $3.50@4; and Laths, $2.50 for Lake, and $2.75 for Pensacola. General orders for rough and dressed lumber are filled at $4 per M feet on cargo prices.

Scotch pig stands about as last noted by us, the market holding very firm at quotations. Eglington is said to be held mostly by one house, as also Glengarnock. Coltness is in very limited supply. We quote Eglington at $52.50@53; Glengarnock, $54@55; Gartsherrie, $56@57; Coltness, $60. American continues firm at full prices, and some mills now behind hand with deliveries. We quote: No. 1, $55@57; No. 2, $53@54; Gray Forge, $48. Rails quiet but firm. New English at $75 gold, and American, $55@50 currency at mill. Scrap is dull and weak at $45@46 from dock, and $47@50 from yard; stock on hand larger than known for years. Refined bar holds firm here, and has slightly advanced at mills in Philadelphia. Sheet has not improved much. We quote at 17 1/2c gold for Russia. Pig lead has not moved since our last, and the anticipations of an advance, in sympathy with foreign markets, has proved fallacious. We quote ordinary foreign, $6.42c@6.45 gold, which is nominal. Manufacture is steady as follows: Bar, 9 1/4c; sheet and pipe, 11c, and tin-lined pipe 16 1/2c, less 10 per cent to the trade. Pig tin has been in poor demand; in fact, holders and purchasers seem mutually disinclined to do much until the result of the Dutch sale is known. We quote Straits and English at 33 1/2c per lb gold, and Banca, 41c do, nominally. Plates are still without movement to speak of, some jobbing sales only being reported. Sheet zinc is firm at 10 1/2@11c per lb.

NAILS.—Have met with a fair sale at the recent advance. We quote: 10 to 60d. common, per keg, $6: 8 @9d, $6.25 do; 6@7d, $6.50 do; 4@5d, $6.75 do; 5@7.50 do; 2@2d, fine, $8.25; 4@4d, sugar-box, 57; cut spikes, all sizes, $6.25; horse-shoe, forged, No. 10 to 5, per lb, 21@33c. Copper, 45c per lb; Yellow Metal Sheathing and Slatting, 30@32c. Fencing and sheathing same as common. Finishing, flooring, box, cooper's, casings, slating, trunk, and tobacco, as follows: 3d. $8: 4@5d, $7.25; 6d, $7; 8d, $6.75; 10d and larger, $6.50 per kg. Clinch nails, 2 and 2 1/4 inch, $8.00; 2 1/2 and 2 3/4 inch, $7.75; 3 inch and longer, $7.50 per kg. In half kegs 50 cents per 100 lb. more than above.

We note exports as follows:—

	Past week.	Since Jan. 1.
Packages.....	188	3,516
Value.....	$951	$61,418

OIL.—The competition between crushers has been favorable to consumers of linseed oil, having weakened the quotations somewhat. The market for jobbing lots may be called active, but full sales are exceptional. We quote linseed crushers, in casks, per gall., 50@82c; do in bbls, 82@83 do. Linseed boiled and refined do, in barrels, 86c; outside lots, in casks, 79c.

PAINT.—There has been a healthy improvement for the week, both in jobbing and on orders. The movement is not confined to any description, but includes the entire schedule. The prospects are much in favor of further improvement. China clay holds to the advance firmly, being in good demand. Vermilions are active and very strong. The color market generally is active and prices very firm.

We note exports as follows:—

	Past week.	Since Jan. 1.
Packages.....	110	3,029
Value.....	$3,218	$61,075

PITCH.—There has been scarcely anything doing in pitch during the week, and we quote at $4.25@4.50, which is rather nominal.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has fluctuated from day to day, but at the close was active and, although large arrivals had recruited the supply, quotations were strong, as follows: Spirits Turpentine, merchantable order, per gallon, 50@61c; do, shipping order do, 61@61 1/2c; do; from store do, 61 1/2@62 do; do in cases do 66@70 do.

TAR.—Business at the close was dull and prices rather nominal. We quote: Newberne and Washington, $3.50@4 per bbl; Wilmington, $3.75@4 per bbl.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Albany Argus for the week ending September 24, 1872, reports as follows:—

The presidential campaign has not affected lumber as usual this year. A steady business and firm prices have continued throughout the season, and an advancing tendency in quotations is reported at all points.

Owing to a scarcity of lake craft and high lake freights, receipts will probably be light for the rest of the season. During the past week one of the heaviest storms that has been known for years occurred on Lake Erie. A number of barges and boats were wrecked and several cargoes and deck loads of lumber were lost. In some cases owners were protected by insurance, in others the boats loaded were too old to obtain insurance.

Shipments from the District since our last report have been large. All of the barges have been kept fully employed.

A good assortment is now on hand. Seasoned pine is scarce; the upper grades are in light supply in all markets. Spruce is more plenty than hemlock.

Manufacturers in Canada and Michigan are too high in their views for this or the South and East, and lumber can be got cheaper here than by bringing it through from the mills, at first cost and the added expenses of transportation.

Our quotations are without change.

The receipts of lumber at Buffalo for the week, by lake, are 9,600,000 feet; at Oswego, 12,048,000 feet.

The receipts of lumber at Chicago, so far this season, are $50,100,000 feet against 730,004,000 feet to a corresponding date in 1871; the shipments, 277,300,000 feet against 424,847,000 feet in 1871.

The receipts at Albany by the Erie and Champlain canals for the third week of September, were:—

Bds. & Sett'g ft. Shingles, M. Tim'r, c. ft. Staves, lbs. 1872.. 18,854,200 442 735,600 1871.. 22,911,100 1,242 330,000

Of the boards and scantling received 12,670,000 feet were by the Erie, and 6,183,300 feet by the Champlain canal.

The receipts at Albany by the Erie and Champlain canals from the opening of navigation to September 23, were:—

Bds. & Sett'g ft. Shingles, M. Tim'r, c. ft. Staves, lbs. 1872.. 238,218,200 9,548 6,096,600 1871.. 299,672,000 22,344 8,293,900

Canal freights from Buffalo to Albany are $5.75@6 per M on pine, and $7.25 on walnut, &c. From Oswego to Albany, $4.00 per M.

River and Eastern freights are quoted as follows:

To New York, $7 M..... $1 50

To Bridgeport and New Haven 2 00

To Norwich and Middletown 2 50

To Hartford and Providence 2 50@2 75

To Boston, soft wood 5 50
